★★★★☆ 4.4 out of 5

Feyre is a skilled huntress who is determined to protect her family. However, when she accidentally kills a wolf, she angers the faerie lord, Tamlin. As punishment, Feyre is taken to Prythian, the faerie realm. There, she must serve as Tamlin's servant for a year.

At first, Feyre is terrified of the faeries. However, she soon discovers that they are not all as cruel as she had imagined. In fact, Tamlin is a kind and compassionate ruler who is willing to give Feyre a second chance.

As Feyre spends more time in Prythian, she begins to fall in love with Tamlin. However, their relationship is forbidden. The faeries and humans have been at war for centuries, and their love could spell disaster for both realms.

Despite the danger, Feyre and Tamlin cannot deny their feelings for each other. They must find a way to break the ancient curse that separates them, or they will be doomed to a life of misery.

Characters

Feyre Archeron is a strong and independent young woman. She is a skilled huntress who is determined to protect her family. However, she is also naive and impulsive, which often leads her into trouble.
