Callahan Garrity, a private investigator from Boston, is hired to find a missing heirloom, the Garrity family jewels. The jewels were stolen from the family home over 20 years ago, and the family has never given up hope of finding them. Callahan Garrity is a tough and determined private investigator, and she is confident that she can find the jewels and return them to the Garrity family.

Callahan Garrity begins her investigation by talking to the Garrity family. She learns that the jewels were stolen by a group of thieves who broke into the family home. The thieves were never caught, and the jewels have never been recovered. Callahan Garrity is determined to find the jewels and return them to the Garrity family, but she knows that it will not be easy.

She will have to track down the thieves and find out where they hid the jewels.
